

"In 2009 we achieved a 90% success rate in solving relationship breakdowns at work"

2Collaborate provide cost effective, preventative and remedial people solutions that help organisations

build trust

and

develop better relationships in the workplace

Our clients tell us that the business case for working with us is compelling. We help organisations to:

- reduce employee turnover
- increase employee engagement and retention
- reduce sickness and absence
- increase productivity levels
- improve health and well-being
- deliver better customer service.

In summary we help deliver cost efficiencies and help organisations save money.

- We always provide the business case for what we do before working with a client and are happy to be measured by results
- We work in both the public and private sectors
- Most of our work is referral based from current clients
- In 2009 we achieved a 90% success rate in solving relationship breakdowns at work.
